

Chattanooga Choo Choo

By Mack Gordon & Harry Warren

Intro: G . Em7 . | Am7 . D7 . | G . Em7 . | Am7 . D7 . |

G . Em7 . | Am7 . D7 . | G . Em7 . | Am7 .
Pardon me, Sir— is that the Chatta-nooga choo choo— ?

E7 . | Am7 . . . | D7 . . . | G . Em7 . | Am7 . D7 . |
Track twenty-nine— Won't you gimme a shine— ?

G . Em7 . | Am7 . D7 . | G . Em7 . | Am7 .
I can a—fford— to board a Chatta-nooga choo choo—

E7 . | Am7 . . . | D7 . . . | G . Am7 . | G7\
I've got my fare— and just a trifle to spare—

(--- -tacit- ---) | C . Dm . | C . Dm\ G7\
You leave the Pennsylv-ania Station 'bout a quarter to four

C . Dm . | C . C7 . |
Read a maga-zine and then you're in Balti—more

F . F#dim . | C . A7 . |
Dinner in the diner— nothing could be finer—

D7 . . . | F . G7 . |
Than to have your ham an' eggs in Car-o—lina

C . Dm . | C . Dm\ G7\
When you hear the whistle blowin' eight to the bar—

C . Dm . | C . C7 . |
Then you know that Tenne-ssee is not very— far—

F . F#dim . | C . A7 . |
Shovel all the coal in— gotta keep it rollin'—

D7 . . . | G7 . C\ D7\
Woo, woo, Chatta-nooga there you are—

G . Em7 . | Am7 . D7 . | G . Em7 . | Am7 .
There's gonna be— a certain party at the station—

E7 . | Am7 . . . | D7 . . . | G . Em7 . | Am7 . D7 . |
Satin and lace— I used to call "Funny— Face"—

G . Dm . | G7 . . . | C . . . | Eb7 . . .
She's gonna cry— un-til I tell her that I'll nev-er— roam—

. | G . Em7 . | Am7 . D7 . | G . Em7 . | Am7
So Chatta-nooga choo choo— won't you choo-choo me home— ?

. D7 . | G . Em7 . | Am7
Won't you choo-choo me home— ?

. D7 . | G . Em7 . | Am7 . D7 . | G\
Won't you choo-choo me home— ?